

Dr. Brian R. Adams

Dr. Adams earned his dental degree from the University of Pacific in San Francisco. In addition to his formal training, Dr. Adams has taken over 250 hours of continuing education ranging from the study of TMJ disorders at The Dawson Center for Dental Education in Tampa, Florida to advanced dental aesthetics at the prestigious Pac-Live Institute. Dr. Adams also has been an adjunct professor at UOP Dental School. Currently, Dr. Adams volunteers time at La Clinica de la Raza in Oakland where he provides dental care to the underserved.

Dr. Adams is an active member with the California Dental Association, American Dental Association, Contra Costa Dental Society, Academy of General Dentistry, and the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry.